PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Wednesday, February 4, has been designated as Sixth National Social Hygiene Day by the American Social Hygiene Association in cooperation with the health, medical and welfare organizations of this state, and

WHEREAS, the object of this nation-wide event is to help protect soldiers, sailors and workers in war industries from syphilis and gonorrhea, and

WHEREAS, special attention is being directed toward the full realization of the menace of commercialized prostitution in areas adjacent to concentrations of armed forces and in war industrial centers.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harlan J. Bushfield, Governor of the State of South Dakota do hereby proclaim Wednesday, February fourth, nineteen hundred and forty-two, as and do hereby urge the people of the State of South Dakota to observe this day and thus aid in the protection of our men in the nation's armed forces and defense industries and prevent loss to the nation's health and efficiency.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Pierre, this 22nd day of January, nineteen hundred and forty-two.
